We reserve the right to make fair adjustments to all prices due to factors that may cause a higher cost to execute. Order size, distance, labor, and difficulty may affect the cost. We can also adjust down at our discretion when it makes sense (for example, an emergency to deliver linens will not cost the price shown above simply because they can be delivered on a smaller vehicle, and it is unlikely to require labor or additional employees to execute. We will adjust according to our philosophy of fairness and service.*
